

PARENT GUIDE TO PARCC STUDENT REPORTS

SPRING 2015 ENGLISH AND MATHEMATICS TESTS

This past spring, your child took new statewide tests in math and English language arts known as the Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC) tests. These tests were designed to match the new, more rigorous standards that are guiding classroom instruction and focus on the critical-thinking, problem-solving, and reasoning skills students need in today's world.

During the week of November 9, 2015, you will receive a report that outlines how your child performed on these tests. The report includes:

- An overall score in math and in English language arts
- How your child is performing in comparison to other students in the same school, district, and state
- A breakdown of how well your child performed in different subcategories within each subject area

Your child's score, as well as the school and district results, may look lower this year because the tests measured more complex skills. A low score does not mean your child did not improve or learned less. It simply means that the expectations have been raised for all students.

The test is just one measure of how well your child is performing academically. Other sources of information, such as grades, teacher feedback, and scores on other tests, are important measures in understanding your child's progress.

HOW TO READ THE STUDENT REPORT

At the top of each report, your child will receive overall performance information, which consists of his or her overall achievement level, overall scale score, and a description of the type of support your child will need based on their performance on the test. This section will also include the district and state performance averages so you can see how your child compares to other students in the same grade and subject area.

OVERALL STUDENT PERFORMANCE		DISTRICT AVERAGE	STATE AVERAGE
LEVEL 2 APPROACHING BASIC	SCORE 714	LEVEL 3 BASIC	SCORE 731	LEVEL 3 BASIC	SCORE 743
Your student scored 714 on a scale of 650 to 850, and performed at the Approaching Basic level. Students performing at this level will need significant support to be prepared for further studies in this content area.

The following chart outlines what each of the newly defined ACHIEVEMENT LEVELS MEANS IN TERMS OF HOW WELL YOUR CHILD MET THE EXPECTATIONS FOR THAT GRADE AND SUBJECT:

5	ADVANCED (790-850)	Exceeded expectations
4	MASTERY (750-789)	Met expectations
3	BASIC (725-749)	Approached expectations
2	APPROACHING BASIC (700-724)	Partially met expectations
1	UNSATISFACTORY (650-699)	Did not meet expectations

Your child's performance will also be broken down into subcategories within each subject. In each subcategory, your child will be provided a rating of one to three stars, with a description of your child's performance in this specific area and the support needed moving forward.

HOW TO USE THE RESULTS

The scores and ratings will be used to help teachers identify when students need additional support or more challenging work in each subject area. The information will also be used to measure how well schools and districts are helping students achieve higher expectations.

As a parent, you can use the test results to guide a discussion with your child's teacher(s) about additional supports or enrichment that may be needed in class and at home.

HERE ARE SOME SUGGESTED QUESTIONS TO ASK WHEN DISCUSSING THE RESULTS WITH YOUR CHILD'S TEACHER(S):

- Where is my child doing well and where does he or she need improvement?
- What can be done in the classroom to help improve his or her area(s) of weakness?
- What can be done to appropriately challenge my child in areas where he or she exceeds the expectations?
- How can I help support my child's learning at home?
- How do we ensure that my child continues to progress?
